

I oppose weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law by imposing the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. Over the years that Indiana's law has been in place, I have been greatly relieved by not receiving unwanted solicitations from business firms. Please do not weaken the law.